

Frank Family Vineyards Chardonnay Reserve

2015 NAPA VALLEY | LEWIS VINEYARD

"The 2015 Chardonnay Lewis Vineyard Carneros Reserve is a beautiful Chardonnay with good, crisp acidity and notes of tangerine oil, lemon zest and poached pear. The wine is medium to full-bodied and shows great acidity, with subtle oak, and a long, rich finish. An impressive effort from the Frank Family, this Chardonnay should age nicely for 5-6 years'.

95 - 98 POINTS

"As rich in fruit as it is in oak and a wine that reminds that structure and size are not antithetical, the Frank Family Reserve Chardonnay is a lavish, wonderfully deep, close-to-extravagant working that succeeds in every way. It is substantial and unsubtle stuff to be sure, but it never drags its feet and is exceptionally well-balanced for the mouthfilling wine that it is. It is involving and fairly complex now and is destined to become even more so with time, and its careful construction guarantees years of growth. Enjoy it in the near term with richer fare ranging from lobster to roast duck, but know that there is no absolute need for hasty drinking. - Connoisseurs' Guide
